Through art, games, videos and other fun activities, children learn that the alcohol/drug problems in their family are NOT THEIR FAULT, THEY ARE NOT ALONE AND THEY CAN COPE. Parents and caregivers will receive support in a group setting while learning new skills to encourage communication with their children. This program is an excellent step towards breaking the cycle of family addiction.

Kids Camp at The Council

June 22- June 24, Houston, TX
July 13 - July 15, Houston, TX
August 10- August 12, Houston, TX
Ages 7-12

children@councilonrecovery.org | 281-200-9299

Three days of prevention, support, and recovery for children ages 7-12 who love someone who struggles with alcohol or other drug addiction, currently or in the past. Through art, games, role-play, and fun activities, kids learn to identify and express feelings, develop self-care skills, and deepen communication with their parents. Parents or caregivers join their children for a portion of Kids Camp that includes parent education and support. Above all, kids learn that addiction is not their fault and that they are not alone.
